The base of a 20-foot tall sign is 30 feet above the driver's eye level, as shown in the diagram below. The sign is easiest to read when the distance x from the driver to the sign is such that the viewing angle θ is as large as possible. Determine the value of x.

